

International Students Mentoring Programme

Enhance your university experience & opportunities with the support of a mentor

This is a pilot project that the University is working on to help international students develop mentoring relationships with employers or other students

You will be matched with an employer mentor or an experienced international student who may have worked part-time whilst studying and who can share their experiences with you.

How will you benefit?

With the support of a mentor you can:

- * Get advice on CVs and interview techniques
- * Benefit from mentor's experience
- * Boost your self confidence
- * Develop networks of support and contacts
- * Gain advice on finding and entering part-time employment

What does the programme involve?

The programme involves attending an information and a training event and then 2 meetings with your mentor before December 2008.
